Artisan Tile & Marble Wins Award

Celebration of Tile, April 1999

On Saturday evening, April 10, 1999, Artisan Tile & Marble Company of New Jersey, Inc. was honored at the Celebration of Tile ’99 Award Dinner in Absecon, New Jersey. Their recently completed project - the Newburgh Mall renovation in Newburgh, New York - was chosen as winner in the Commercial Tile Installation category.

The Newburgh Mall was originally built in 1980 and was renovated by E.W. Howell Co., Inc. of Port Washington, NY, the general contractor for this project. Nearly 50,000 square feet of stone tiles was used to create a variety of patterns from checkerboards to field cut murals.

The architectural firm of James Thomas Potter in association with Thompson, Ventulett, Stainback & Associates were recognized for their work in receiving this Architectural Project Award. Kravco, Inc. is the developer and leasing agent for this property.

Artisan Tile & Marble has completed over 35 malls in their 35 year history, many of which have also been award winning.
